Edward Daniel • FECA Claims Representative

Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, Texas Christian University, 1977. He was an OWCP claims examiner in the Dallas District office from 1977 to 1982 and later served with the OWCP Quality Control Unit as the office congressional liaison, as claims manager and as manager of the Vocational Rehab/Claims Unit. From 1994 to 1997 he was involved in several projects that focused on specialization of claims to make the adjudication process more efficient. In 1997, he joined the law firm of Bannerman & Johnson, establishing the Federal Employees Compensation Law Center. In 2010, Mr. Daniel formed his own business to represent injured workers from across the nation with their OWCP claims.
